Industrial Notes About a Growing Town.

ROANOKE TIMES BUREAU, RADFORD, VA., Oct. 17. Mr. J. D. Noble, of Dublin, Va., who recently purchased three lots on Second street, has commenced grading for a magnificent residence, to cost between five and six thousand dollars. Messrs. Fortune and Dudley are the contractors and will make this one of the most attractive dwellings in the city.

The Pipe and Foundry plant, the largest of its kind in the South, will be completed and in full blast in the next thirty days, and will add at least one thousand inhabitants to the population of Radford.

It is understood that as soon as the affairs of the late Mr. Wheelin, Sr., can be straightened up, work on the Townsend and Wheelin rolling mill will be commenced. A syndicate wishing to invest their money could not do so to better advantage than by buying a block of ground in Radford and building a number of neat and substantial cottages; they are badly needed and will be rented fifteen days after completion. Capt. A. J. Lucas, the oldest and one of the most respected citizens of Radford, arrived in the city yesterday on a visit to his son-in-law, John W. Airheart, of Taverne and Airheart, who has been in bad health for some time.

The Times in Radford.

Mr. Jas. A. Pugh, traveling correspondent of THE ROANOKE TIMES, has been in Radford this week giving the town a general write-up and arranging for the establishment of a bureau. He proposes to have a regular correspondent here, who will give one or two columns daily in THE TIMES, and in connection with this the paper will be delivered by carrier boys, the paper arriving at 8:30 a. m. By this means our people will get the daily papers two or three hours earlier than at present. We hope our people will support the move liberally. It will be a good advertisement.

TO PREVENT CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

The Directors of the Society Meet and Elect Officers.

At a meeting of the directors of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, held last night in the office of Watts & Robertson, there were present Col. Thomas Lewis, J. C. Rawn, Phil. Lockett, S. W. Jamison, J. Allen Watts and F. R. Moody. J. Allen Watts was elected president of the society and F. R. Moody secretary and treasurer. Messrs. Watts, Rawn and Lockett were made a committee on constitution and by-laws. The directors adjourned to meet next Saturday evening at the same place.

It is the purpose of the organization to secure the enactment of ordinances for the prevention and punishment of cruelty to animals, and to secure the appointment of a special policeman to act as agent for the society.

THE STREET RAILWAY.

The Salem Dummy to be Turned Over by the Contractors—The Electric Line.

The affairs of the Roanoke Street Railway Company are rapidly assuming a more favorable phase. On Monday the Salem dummy line will be turned over by the contractors, Geo. O. Houston & Co., to the Roanoke Street Railway Company and operated as a part of the entire system.

The work of reorganizing the street railway company and carrying out its purposes of developing an efficient and thorough electric system, is making good headway and within a few days it is probable that the announcement will be made that the thing is done and that work will be speedily pushed forward.

Progressive Euchre Party.

A very pleasant progressive euchre party was given Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Langhorne at their residence on Chestnut street to Miss Taylor, of Franklin county, Va., and Miss Churchill, of Little Rock, Ark. There were present Judge and Mrs. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Powell, Miss Lillie Strouse and A. L. Hannan, Miss Mollie Logan and J. Thomas, Miss Emily Taliaferro and J. A. Floyd, Miss Nannie Chapman and S. F. Clements and Messrs. W. S. Taylor and A. Riddick. The prize, a scarf pin, was won by Mr. J. A. Floyd, of the Norfolk and Western railroad. The first lady's prize, a handsome vase, by Mrs. Judge Griffin. The ladies' booby prize, a basket of candy, by Miss Mollie Logan, and the gentlemen's booby prize, a great red beet, by Adonis T. Powell.

A Handsome Present.

Saturday night a number of young men employed in the construction of the large building of the Chadwick Two-Wheeler Company, erected by Mr. W. G. B. Fitzgerald, presented their foreman, Mr. C. B. Fuell, with a handsome new hat, Mr. B. O. Thomas making the presentation address. Mr. Fuell, after acknowledging the gift, invited the boys to Dill's confectionery, where refreshments were served. The carpenter work on the building is about finished.

Lyons and Murphy to Meet.

Carter Lyons, the light-weight champion of the South, will meet Harry Murphy, the clever Roanoke boxer, at Lynchburg next Thursday in a fifty-round Marquis of Queensberry contest, and on the 27th of this month will go against Charles McCarthy, of Philadelphia, in Washington. The match will be ten rounds for a purse of $300.

The Verdict Sustained. by the citizens of Roanoke that J. W. Wonders keeps the most stylish line of footwear in the city. 105 Commerce street.
